

Linking of bisphosphonate with a drug of interest creates a new entity, which leaves circulation intact and releases a pharmacophore payload and bisphosphonate on the bone.